

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Circa Telecom Names George Leudemann Employee of the Year

TAMPA, FL, Feb. 2, 2009 – Circa Telecom USA, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Circa Enterprises, Inc., today announced that George Leudemann has been named Employee of the Year. Mr. Leudemann, a Field Service Representative whose territory covers Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Maryland, Virginia, Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Quebec and Nova Scotia, joined Circa Telecom in 2007.

"Every year, we select one of our employees who has truly gone above and beyond the call of duty," said Benjamin Biggs, Circa Telecom's Director of Marketing and Sales. "George's contribution to our team and to our record sales this past year has been outstanding."

Sales Manager Mark Stephenson added, "George's enthusiasm for the product, sales process and marketing strategies not only made him successful from a sales perspective, but earned him the respect of his peers and management alike. We offer him our sincere congratulations."

About Circa Telecom USA, Inc.

Circa Telecom, based in Tampa since 1990, is a subsidiary of Circa Enterprises, Inc., a specialty manufacturer focused on surge protection and related equipment primarily for the telecommunications industry headquartered in Calgary, Alberta, Canada. Circa Enterprises is listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange, symbol CTO. Circa Telecom provides sales and service support to the U.S. marketplace through its data communications distributor network. For more information about Circa Telecom and our complete line of primary protection products please visit www.circatelecom.com.